Additional Information

How is this data collected?

Data is exported daily from the MNPd RMS by automated script. Data is subject to change during an investigation as more information becomes available. MNPd makes every reasonable effort to ensure that the information is current and accurate at the time it is provided, although data may contain erroneous information due to undetected errors, false information provided by suspects and witnesses, and other reasons beyond MNPd's control.

What does each record represent?

A reported incident

What are the limitations of the data?

This information is not to be used or construed as an official MNPd incident report. Location information is rounded for privacy reasons. Full location information is not available for open investigations.

Additional comments:

More information may be available via a public records request.
